The Trade of Knoxville.
H. V. R., of the Commercial, writing from Williamsburg, Whitley county, Kentucky, speaks of the trade of Knoxville thus:
If I was in a condition to be astonished at anything, it would be at the trade which Knoxville draws from this region of country. Most of the trade from Whitley county goes to Knoxville, as does the trade of nearly, if not quite, every Tennessee county or town I have passed through, going or coming. I remember to have passed a country store thirty-six miles above Chat-anooga, the proprietor of which told me that he bought all his goods in Knoxville, and shipped them around through Chattanooga. Every county by which I have passed, from there here, gets its supplies from the same place. Fully half the trade from this town goes to Knoxville. I was told, and upon further inquiry found it to be so, that every merchant in this place trades in Knoxville and Louisville, and not one in Cincinnati, although three years ago Cincinnati enjoyed a monopoly of the trade from here. Now she gets none. The reason given me for this was that "Cincinnati is such an unhandy place to get to."
I asked a merchant who buys both in Louisville and Knoxville, how the two markets would compare. He replied that he "could find little or no difference between them. One is about as good as the other." This is a good joke on Louisville.

Maryville Items.
J. C. Edmondson, Revenue Collector for Blount county, was married last Thursday to Miss Scott.
Mr. — Brakebill and Miss Annie Sanderson were married last Thursday.
W. H. Finley, former sheriff, and late Representative in the Constitutional convention for Blount county, died last Sunday of consumption. He was buried on Friday at the burying ground at Logan's Chapel. He leaves an interesting family to mourn his loss.
A Sabbath School celebration was held Friday at Pleasant Grove Church. A very large audience was in attendance, and speeches appropriate to the occasion were made by Revs. McCarroll, P. M. Henry and others, interspersed by vocal music by Rev. Mr. McCarroll's choir, from Mount Lebanon, and violin music, together with a vast amount of the good things of earth, taken usually for the sabbath's sake. All passed off quietly and pleasantly. The interest in Sabbath Schools continues unabated, and seems to be rather on the increase in all parts of the country.
John Robinson's advance guard has filled the old Wilson Square with "purty pictures" of animals, and says we are soon to have a show at Maryville. We're laying up our surplus change, starting for our candy and "sich likes," determined to go to the show.

A little boy up street said to his sister the other day, "I know what your heart's pretty white horse's name is. It's 'Dam-ye.'" "Hush, sonny, that's a naughty word." "Well I don't care if 'tis; that's his name; 'cos, last night, I was outside the fence when he stopped at the front gate, and I heard him say, 'Whoa, dam-ye!'"—Burlington (Vt.) Free Press.

Wesleyan University,
ATHENS, TENN.
THE FALL TERM OF THIS INSTITUTION will open on THURSDAY, the 30th of August, and continue twenty weeks.
It has now a full corps of experienced and successful teachers. Male and female students are admitted.
Terms as low as at any school of similar grade in the South. Board, $2.50 per week.
It is not a mixed school for white and colored, as is often falsely reported.
A Normal School.
However, will be opened, if students enough desire it, from which colored people will not be excluded, on THURSDAY, the 12th of October. This will be entirely separate and distinct from the University, and under teachers not at all connected with the College, but exclusively devoted to the normal work. This repartment has never been opened for want of pupils, and there may be no pupils this year.

President of the University.
